

Tierra is committed to improving the health and wellbeing of children and families throughout the Hampton Roads region. She joined CINCH in 2018 as the Program Coordinator for Healthy Kids. Presently, she serves as the Program Coordinator for the Healthy Alternatives for Little Ones (HALO) program. She has experience in community organizing, state legislation, and elementary education.

Tierra holds Bachelor's degree in Sociology and Africana Studies with a concentration in Public Health from Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, Maryland.